

Remote depositions have become accepted and more commonplace as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. This list tracks the various state and federal authorities that govern remote depositions and the administration of oaths or affirmations when the court reporter or notary is not in the same room as the witness. The list contains a link to each state's law or rule related to remote depositions and a link to any statute, executive, or supreme court order authorizing remote oaths. The list is updated periodically and subject to change to reflect each state's revisions to its remote deposition and oath rules.
