

Labor Law Today—2022 Year in Review

Perkins Coie is pleased to present the fourth edition of Labor

Law Today—Year in Review, offering a summary of the past year's most noteworthy and influential developments in traditional labor law. This publication covers a new and active National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) general counsel; an increase in job action as walkouts and strikes present an interesting labor variable; critical developments and NLRB decisions; and the transition from an employer-friendly Trump administration to a NLRB dominated by Biden administration appointees.
