

Three Perkins Coie Attorneys Recognized by the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity

SEATTLE (February 26, 2020) - Perkins Coie is proud to announce that three firm attorneys, Sam Jo, Elizabeth Mendoza, and Roque Thuo, have been recognized by the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) as part of the council's Fellows and Pathfinder programs.

Sam Jo is a Seattle-based partner in Perkins Coie's Technology Transactions & Privacy Law practice, Elizabeth Mendoza is a Seattle-based associate in the Technology Transactions & Privacy Law practice, and Roque Thuo is a Phoenix-based associate in the Intellectual Property Law practice. Sam has been recognized under the Fellows program, and Elizabeth and Roque were recognized under the Pathfinder program.

"We'd like to thank the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity for recognizing Sam, Elizabeth, and Roque and congratulate them for their induction into the Fellows and Pathfinder programs," said Perkins Coie's Chief Diversity & Inclusion Officer Genhi Givings Bailey. "Diversity and inclusion are core to our firm culture and the legal perspective we bring to global clients."

The LCLD programs train high-performing attorneys in critical career development strategies, including leadership and the building of professional networks. Founded in 2009, LCLD is a growing organization of more than 320 corporate chief legal officers and law firm managing partners who are personally committed to creating a truly diverse legal profession.
