

Perkins Coie Represents Microsoft in Its Acquisition of Ally.io

SEATTLE (October 18, 2021)—Perkins Coie is pleased to have represented Microsoft Corporation in its acquisition of Ally.io to help organizations use technology to bring deeper connection to work and results in the hybrid world. For more information, please see Microsoft's press release here.

Ally.io, a leading OKR (objectives and key results) company, will join the Microsoft Viva family as part of Microsoft's employee experience platform (EXP), which is designed to help companies embrace the new digital work life.

The Perkins Coie deal team was led by corporate and securities partner Andrew Moore and mergers and acquisitions associates Tyler Mordecai and Numaan Deen. Advice was also provided by technology transactions partner Samuel Jo, privacy counsel Arsen Kourinian, employment partner Julie Lucht, executive compensation partner Sue Morgan, employee benefits partner Tom Cristy, employee benefits associate Tomer Vandsburger, tax partner Carl Crow, and tax associate Minkeun Woo.

Perkins Coie is a leading global law firm, dedicated to helping the world's most innovative companies solve the legal and business challenges of tomorrow. Learn about our work and values here.
