

Perkins Coie Represents Boise Cascade Company in Its Acquisition of Coastal Plywood Company

SEATTLE (July 27, 2022)—Perkins Coie is pleased to have represented Boise Cascade Company in the closing of its acquisition of the Coastal Plywood Company from Coastal Forest Resources Company in a transaction valued at approximately $517 million, inclusive of estimated working capital. For more information, please see Boise Cascade Company's press release here.

The Coastal Plywood Company provides plywood, lumber, and treated wood products throughout the eastern U.S. The strategic acquisition will allow Boise Cascade Company to expand its Southeast operations and includes mills in Havana, Florida and Chapman, Alabama.

The Perkins Coie mergers & acquisitions team that advised Boise Cascade Company is led by partners Andrew Moore and Jessica Batzell, counsel David Martinez, and associates Numaan Deen and Katherine Joseph. Other members of the deal team included employee benefits partner Tom Cristy and associate Tomer Vandsburger; employment partner Emily Bushaw and counsel Kathiana Aurelien; intellectual property partner Peter Kinsella and associates Sean Belding and John Schoppert; environmental, energy & resources partner Michael Dunning and associate Jane Carmody; real estate partner Devin McComb and associate Samuel Lee; antitrust partner Christopher Williams; tax partner Carl Crow and associates Minkeun Woo and Kristi Lee; and insurance partner Michael Sharkey.
