

Perkins Coie Named as a 2024 Top Company in Idaho

BOISE (April 8, 2024)—Perkins Coie is pleased to announce that it has been named as one of the 2024 Top Companies in Idaho's Treasure Valley by the Idaho Business Review. This is the second year in a row that Perkins Coie ranked second in the large company category. The firm was also awarded the special categories of Top Company for Diversity, Equity and Inclusion and Top Family Friendly Company.

"This award is such an honor and I'm particularly proud that our workplace is recognized as one that is inclusive and allows our lawyers and business professionals to prioritize their families and lifestyles," said Melanie Rubocki, Perkins Coie's Boise office managing partner. "Our team is dedicated to fostering a sense of belonging for everyone in our office, and that unique aspect of our culture is an important contributor to the high-class legal service we provide to our clients."

The Idaho Business Review's recognition of leading companies seeks to identify, highlight, and honor the best workplaces in Treasure Valley that also benefit the region's economy. To be considered for the award, companies were evaluated based on their company policies, practices, benefits, and demographics. The evaluation also included an employee survey that measured employee engagement and satisfaction. The resulting combined scores determined the top companies and the final rankings.

Perkins Coie has long been recognized for its commitment to fostering a balanced and welcoming workplace, including being ranked as one of Fortune's "100 Best Companies to Work For®" for 22 consecutive years.

Perkins Coie is a leading international law firm that is known for providing high-value, strategic solutions and extraordinary client service on matters vital to our clients' success.
