

Eric Evans Quoted in Law360—Travel Ban Rescission Didn't Resolve Harm, Visa Seekers Say

Partner Eric Evans was quoted in "Travel Ban Rescission Didn't Resolve Harm, Visa Seekers Say," an article in Law360,* regarding former President Donald Trump's now-defunct travel bans.

Perkins Coie attorney Eric Evans, counsel for the visa seekers, denounced the travel ban and reiterated their position that requiring visa applicants to file again amounted to new harms in a statement on Wednesday.

"They lost the chance to see loved ones for years and shouldn't have to go to the back of the line," he told Law360.
