

Partner J Cabou Quoted in Tampa Bay Times—Will Gov. Desantis Get Deposed and Questioned on the Witness Stand?

Partner J Cabou was quoted in "Will Gov. Desantis Get Deposed and Questioned on the Witness Stand?" an article in Tampa Bay Times, regarding the upcoming federal court battle between suspended Hillsborough State Attorney Andrew Warren and Gov. Ron DeSantis.

Todd Foster, a former FBI agent and federal prosecutor now in private practice in Tampa, said the lawyers will ask for "robust discovery — emails, records, texts, records of conversations, meetings, anything that could possibly give insight to the governor's decision."

A trial also means witnesses questioned in depositions and called to testify in court.

"We certainly believe it would be appropriate to depose the governor and we plan to ask to do that," said Warren's attorney J Cabou.
