

Ron Sarubbi Quoted in Law360—8 New York Managing Partners on Their Priorities for 2023

Partner Ron Sarubbi was quoted in "8 New York Managing Partners on Their Priorities for 2023," an article in Law360,* regarding emphasizing culture and intentional growth in 2023.

Perkins Coie acquired the women-founded emerging companies boutique Kluk Farber Law PLLC in November, helping expand the firm's New York office to more than 100 lawyers, according to Sarubbi.

"I do foresee continued growth in our tech transactions, mergers and acquisitions (M&A), intellectual property (IP), and financial regulatory practices in New York—and we are always in the market for strategic hires," Sarubbi said through a spokesperson. "Given our deeper emerging company and venture capital practice capabilities, I could also see us adding additional private equity and capital markets capabilities in New York."
