

‘Varsity Blues’ One Year Later—Lessons for Higher Ed Investigations

It's been one year since federal agents made dozens of arrests in the nationwide college admissions scandal. Perkins Coie attorneys give four guideposts to help colleges and universities steer themselves, and their communities, through such moments of crisis.

Roughly one year ago—on March 12, 2019—federal agents made dozens of arrests in the nationwide college admissions scandal known as "Varsity Blues."
