

Perkins Coie partner Nancy Cheng led a CLE presentation for Asian Pacific American Bar Association (APABA) members on November 15, 2022.

The presentation provided a guide for in-house lawyers on fulfilling their professional obligations while protecting the company's legal interests. Nancy addressed questions including the following:

- 1. What are the ethical implications for an in-house lawyer who is acting in a business, not legal, capacity?
- 2. Do the Rules of Professional Conduct apply to restrict a lawyer's conduct in their business capacity?
- 3. How is the scope of the attorney-client privilege affected by mixed legal/business roles?

Speakers

Nancy Cheng

Partner

NCheng@perkinscoie.com 650.838.4325

Explore more in

Intellectual Property Law Patent Litigation