

The Labor Department's First 100 Days Under Biden—What to Know

The Biden administration is closing in on its first 100 days. Based on the strong progressive agenda of the campaign, it was expected that the Department of Labor would take very bold and aggressive actions out of the gate.

Official rule and policy changes in the DOL's worker protection agencies, however, have been measured. Nevertheless, the first 100 days have revealed strong signals about where the DOL is going during this administration. We check in on significant DOL developments in the first 100 days and what we expect moving forward.
