

Articles

April 08, 2022

Enforcement Takeaways From ABA Antitrust Meeting

There's a clear message out of the American Bar Association's Antitrust Law Spring Meeting, held April 5-8 in Washington: Practitioners should know that we are in a new era of antitrust enforcement and the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice will be taking on tough cases such as those addressing criminal Section 2 enforcement and labor market practices.

Click here to read the full article on Law360.*

*Subscription-based publication.

Authors

Explore more in

Antitrust & Unfair Competition Consumer Protection