

At the Practising Law Institute's SEC Speaks conference, held Sept. 8 – 9 in Washington, D.C., the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission leadership espoused an ambitious agenda for both rulemaking and enforcement in 2022 and beyond.

Although discussions at the conference ran the gamut of topics — from environmental, social and governance disclosures to the Russia-Ukraine conflict — crypto was the word on everyone's lips.

Read the full article on *Law360.

*Subscription-based publication.

Authors

Jose A. Lopez

Partner

JLopez@perkinscoie.com 312.324.8672

Katherine E. May

Partner

KMay@perkinscoie.com 214.259.4953

Explore more in

Securities Litigation White Collar & Investigations