

Blogs

September 19, 2022

Public Chatter

DOJ Announces Sweeping Policy Updates for Corporate Criminal Enforcement and Individual Accountability

As noted in this Update penned by Jamie Schafer and Gina LaMonica, Deputy Attorney General Lisa Monaco announced several significant policy updates affecting the DOJ's enforcement practices for both corporations and individuals in a speech last week. The DOJ simultaneously released a memorandum outlining the guidance announced by DAG Monaco. Read the Update for more...

Explore more in

Corporate Law

Blog series

Public Chatter

Public Chatter provides practical guidance—and the latest developments—to those grappling with public company securities law and corporate governance issues, through content developed from an in-house perspective.

View the blog