Food & Consumer Packaged Goods Litigation

Special Article: US halal food regulations... Are you up to speed?

A growing segment of US consumers is scrutinizing animal treatment and slaughter from an Islamic lens, while halal food consumption among the nation's fast-growing Muslim population has become a ballooning enterprise in the United States and is now estimated at over $20 billion. This growing halal industry has been met with increased regulations and scrutiny from governments. Multiple states have enacted statutes in recent years to regulate the halal food industry and to prevent mislabeling and deceptive practices.
