Challenges happen. Viruses, supply chain interruptions, sluggish sales, delayed approvals, development glitches, wars and elections.

Perkins Coie Partners Sara Chenetz and Joydeep Dasmunshi and Gordian Group President and Head of Restructuring Peter Kaufman discussed ways funds can address challenges and enhance the value of portfolio companies as well as capitalize on investment opportunities in this market.

Topics included strategies on how to:

- Identify challenges and opportunities
- Develop exit and other options, including buying options

- Implement choices while remaining nimble
 - Protect the sponsor when a portfolio company faces capital structure stress
 - Employ professionals effectively

How to Maximize Value at Companies with Challenged Capital Structures
