Optimizing Your Summer and Future Employment Opportunities

Summer jobs have been interrupted this year for countless students as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, shelter-at-home orders, and the resulting economic impact on many legal employers.

If your summer employment plans have changed, fallen through, or never materialized, there is still much you can do to optimize your summer and your future employment opportunities. This program is designed to focus on you and your options. Our speakers offered you concrete advice on how you can use your time this summer to become the "preferred candidate" employers describe in their job postings.
