Kerry Potter McCormick's Move to Perkins Coie Highlighted in Numerous Media Outlets

Partner Kerry Potter McCormick was profiled and quoted in numerous media publications regarding her move to Perkins Coie as a partner in the New York office with the firm's Corporate and Financial Regulation practices.

Private funds partner Kerry Potter McCormick told Law 360 Pulse on Tuesday that Perkins "is reacting to the growing needs of its clients as well as good opportunities in the market to grow the private funds and investment management groups." She identified the firm's associate- and partner-level talent, breadth of practices and global platform as factors that drew her there.
