2020 Labor and Employment Law Virtual Workshop

This half-day, virtual employment law workshop, covered a variety of topics, including diversity and inclusion in the workplace, navigating sensitivities around political law issues, key considerations for remote working, and recent employment law changes all business owners should know.

Robert Chesnut, former chief ethics officer at Airbnb, Inc. and author of Intentional Integrity: How Smart Companies Can Lead an Ethical Revolution, was our keynote speaker. Rob is an active speaker and thought leader in corporate ethics and provided insights on how to foster and manage a culture of integrity at work.
