Career Planning Top Tips for Midlevel In-House and Outside Counsel Associates

Whether you hope to land a job in Big Law or need strategies for making the move in-house, our panel of mid-level attorneys will provide current guidance on how to think about your professional development and success in career planning in privacy, data security, or tech transaction. Plus, they'll talk about what it takes to land a role with Silicon Valley's tech giants.

CLE credit in the WA Professional Development category is available via the recording below until February 28, 2021.
