Generative AI & Intellectual Property Rights of the Creative Artist

Meeka Bondy was the moderator of the "Generative AI & Intellectual Property Rights of the Creative Artist" panel during AI Summit 2023.

Generative AI & Intellectual Property Rights of the Creative Artist

The moment every artist, writer, producer, performer as well as network and publishing executive grasp the power of Generative AI, they immediately call their lawyer or legal department. As the massive AI supercomputers in the cloud “scrape data,” or what artists might refer to as their life’s work and begin “Doing their Business,” the entire legal profession, especially in New York, Los Angeles and Silicon Valley get to work. In this session, we explored these ideas.

Dawn Botti, EVP, Legal and Business Affairs, AMC Studios and Streaming Services, AMC Networks

Randi Pollack, SVP and Associate General Counsel, A+E Networks

J. Scott Evans, Senior Director, IP & Advertising Law, Adobe

Meeka Bondy, Senior Counsel, Technology Transactions & Privacy Group and Co-Chair, Film and TV Group, Perkins Coie LLP, Moderator
