Perkins Coie Shortlisted in Several Categories by Managing IP's Americas Awards

NEW YORK (March 4, 2025)—Perkins Coie is pleased to announce that the firm's Intellectual Property practice has been shortlisted by Managing IP's 2025 Americas Awards in multiple national and regional categories. The firm has been named to the "Firm of the Year" national shortlists in the Appellate, International Trade Commission, and Trademark Prosecution categories and regionally in the West for both Patent Prosecution and Patent Disputes.

Individually, partner Nate Kelley (Washington, D.C.) has been named to the national shortlist for "Practitioner of the Year: Appellate" and partners Ramsey Al-Salam (Washington) and Amanda Tessar (Denver) have been listed under "Litigator of the Year" in their respective regions.

The Managing IP Awards, now in their 20th year, recognize remarkable IP achievements and developments in the last year. The winners will be announced on April 24.

The internationally recognized Intellectual Property practice at Perkins Coie consists of more than 275 lawyers and agents in the United States and Asia, more than 80% of whom have STEM degrees, including 60 with STEM master's degrees and 30 with doctorate degrees.
